CHARITON COURIER

C. P. VANDIVER, ED. AND PROP.

KEYTESVILLE, - MISSOURI.

Entered at the Post-office at Keytesville, Mo., as second-class matter.

Red Front.

Go to the Red Front for groceries.

J. F. Whitesides has no stale groceries.

Cash or trade paid for butter, eggs and poultry at J. F. Whitesides.

Fresh barrel open kettle New Orleans molasses at J. F. Whitesides.

Mrs. Mills will have a special sale of hats, beginning Saturday, Nov. 16 and lasting two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. McCampbell of near Rothville have been the guests of Mrs. Campbell's father and sister, J. T. and Miss Lydia Swain of this city, for several days.

The COURIER has a couple of new Richmonds in the field as correspondents this week, one at Collinswood, a thriving lumber and cordwood village, four miles north of Triplett, and the other at Newhall, the capital of Salt Creek township. We would be pleased to hear from these scribes regularly.

Over 100,000 bushels of wheat have been shipped from Keytesville this season, all of which has gone outside of the state. H. C. Hyde, who is buying for Pollock & Co. of Mexico, informs us that he shipped 6,000 bushels to Louisville, Ky., last week—the biggest shipment he has made in any one week during the season.

The Red Front grocery store wants your trade.

If you want fresh groceries go to J. F. Whitesides.

Jos. House of Mendon has sold a half interest in his general store to Jas. M. Long. We hope for the new firm every possible success.

The dinner, supper and bazar, given by the ladies of the Baptist church in the lower room of the Signal building Wednesday, was well patronized, the ladies taking in something over $91.

Don't forget the Thanksgiving services at the Methodist church in Keytesville next Thursday morning at 10:30. The services will consist of appropriate songs and short addresses by the pastors of the several churches and, perhaps, others. All are cordially invited.

The notorious Lamb Bradford, col., has sold her residence property in Keytesville, which was acquired under circumstances that caused many to wonder where she got the money to buy it. The purchaser of the property from the Bradford negress was S. Stafford of Harrison county, Mo., who will occupy the premises as a home.

Fred Huenton of near Guthridge Mills, who has been in the vicinity of Cody, Neb., for the past three months, returned home the latter part of last week, and will spend the winter with homefolks. Fred informs us that prairie fires have been quite disastrous in the neighborhood of Cody, and that among the sufferers was I. C. Statfs, formerly of this county, who lost seventy-five tons of hay.

Come to the Red Front for cheap groceries.

I want your corn at thirty cents a bushel.

H. C. HYDE.

Miss Lottie Aldridge of Kansas City is visiting her parents, Dr. and Mrs. J. T. Aldridge of this city.

Rev. Franc. Mitchell is engaged in a series of meetings at a church, near Mexico, Mo., and for that reason there will be no preaching at the Presbyterian church in Keytesville next Sunday. Rev. Mitchell expects to be at home in time for Thanksgiving services.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Cunningham of Keytesville are in ecstasies of joy over the arrival of a fine boy at their house Saturday morning, Nov. 15. All are getting along nicely, but Mr. Cunningham almost wore the telephone out at his house letting his friends know about his new boy.

We see by the Salisbury Press-Spectator that Dr. Jennings was called to Brunswick Sunday to hold an inquest over the remains of Mrs. Otila Kaiser, aged 63, who was found dead in the orchard, near the residence. That evening her husband and two sons found her body near where a fire had been, presumably to burn up trash. Her clothes were burned and her flesh badly crisped. Deceased had been partially paralyzed and it is supposed that in burning some trash her clothes caught fire and, not being able to extinguish the flames, she perished. Dr. Jennings returned a verdict in accordance with the above statements.

For Sale.

One coming 2-year-old, high grade, Short-horn bull. Dark red, well formed and good disposed. A bargain if taken at once. For further information call at or address this office.

Gov. Dockery has appointed senator E. B. Fields of Browning as chairman of the legislative committee to settle with the state auditor and state treasurer. This is an excellent appointment and a merited recognition of Senator Fields' integrity and ability.

J. C. Maddox of Glasgow attended court in Keytesville Wednesday and bought a doll at the Baptist bazar for his grand-daughter, Carrie Ann Maddox. This little girl took the silver cup one year ago at Glasgow for being the prettiest baby under two years old.

Dingle Bros. of Moberly have 1,000 head of sheep in J. E. Rucker's pasture, two miles north of Higbee. Dogs made a rade on the flock the other night and crippled fourteen of them. Since then the shepherd in charge has been supplied with a gun, and hunters notified to keep off the premises under penalty of prosecution.

If the Salisbury Press-Spectator's subscribers are not "done up" it will certainly not be because they are not amply dunned. The P.-S. is the "dunningest" newspaper on the face of the earth. That seems to be the way it has of making its living. If the COURIER had a lot of subscribers who required as much dunning as the P.-S. readers we would employ a specialist in that line and keep him in the field.

Two tough-looking bums went into Kline Bros.' store at Chillicothe Saturday night and tried to frighten Nicholas Kline into giving them money. Mr. Kline picked up a chair and started for the tramps, who beat a hasty retreat. They were later arrested and taken to the city limits and made to leave town.

Jas. C. Cash of Eccles took the first degree in Odd Fellowship in Pee Dee lodge, No. 580, last Friday night. The goat made things pretty lively for Jim, but he finally managed to master the obstreperous quadruped. Among those in attendance were Clyde Smith and M. H. Talbott of Dalton lodge, who not only enjoyed seeing the sport with Jim and the I. O. O. F. goat, but they are also enthusiastic over the royal treatment accorded them at the hospitable home of Mr. and Mrs. John Welch, two miles south of Pee Dee, whose guests they were over Friday night.

One of the most delightful church entertainments given in Keytesville for a long time was the chrysanthemum show which the Ladies' Aid Society of Christian church gave Thursday and Friday nights. The display of flowers was beautiful, the vocal and instrumental music was fine and the refreshments delectable. Rev. Franc. Mitchell presided as master of ceremonies with wit and wisdom. The prizes were awarded as follows: For the finest and largest collection of chrysanthemums, Mrs. Hugo Bartz, $5; finest variety, Miss Margaret Mitchell, $2; finest display of cut chrysanthemums, Miss Katie Dewey, $3; greatest amount of chrysanthemums furnished for decorative purposes, Miss Leolyn Sneed, $1. The net proceeds of the "mum show" were about $50.

The many Keytesville friends of Mrs. John A. Lee of Jefferson City, but who lived in Keytesville for several years, will be pained to learn of her death, which occurred at the Baptist sanitarium in St. Louis last Saturday night from the effects of a surgical operation for tumor. Mrs. Lee was a sweetly disposed, noble Christian woman and a model wife and mother. Her remains were conveyed to Jefferson City for interment. The COURIER tenders its sympathies to the bereaved husband and children.

The nation's pride. Yale coffee.
C. L. WHITE.

Cattle For Sale.

A mixed lot of cattle for sale, including some feeding steers, at my farm, six miles west of Keytesville,

D. M. RICHARDS.

Corn Contest.

C. N. Butts of Knoxville, Ills., offers a year's subscription to the COURIER for the best dozen ears of yellow corn, and a year's subscription for the best dozen ears of white corn raised in Chariton county this season.

For the second best dozen ears of each variety of corn named, Mr. Butts will give a fine photograph of a log cabin built of corn.

Only subscribers to the COURIER are eligible to enter the contest.

None of the corn must be less than twelve inches long with sixteen rows of grains and well filled at both ends. It must be brought to this office, and the editor of the COURIER is to be judge of the contest, which closes Saturday, November 29, at noon.
